

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SWIFT CHAMP, - EDITOR AND OWNER.

INITIATION.—There will be a large class initiated into the order of Elks on Tuesday night.

HAD ALL THE SUNDAYS.—Although February was the shortest month, it had as many Sundays as the longest ones will have.

COTTON.—Tobacco cotton at Twin Bros., Paris.

IT'S A FACT.—No joke about this, they are working on the Elks' building. The pile of well-seasoned flooring on the public square will now soon disappear.

ASSAULTED.—John Brierly, ex-Bourbon, was assaulted on street at Georgetown by Ben Sanders, colored, and given terrible beating. Sanders was held to grand jury under $150 bond.

RESIDENCE BURNED.—The residence on the farm of W. L. Yerkes, on the Stringtown pike, was burned to the ground, yesterday. It was occupied by Mr. James Stewart and family.

HOUSES IN DEMAND.—There were eight or ten persons looking for dwelling houses in this city the past week. Capitalists could find no better investment than to build a number of cottages in Paris.

Tobacco Canvas.—Buy your tobacco canvas from Freeman & Freeman, at 2½ and 3 cents.

NEW TRIAL.—James Bess, formerly of Bourbon, under sentence to be hanged for the murder of Mrs. Martha Martin, at Lexington, will have a new trial, beginning Tuesday in the Fayette Circuit Court.

APPLES.—If you want something nice and juicy, get a peck of Genaton Apples at Arkle's old stand.

*Phone 357. BOURBON PRODUCE CO.

A CALL.—If Mr. W. W. Shropshire will consent to make the race for Representative of Bourbon county, he will receive the support of MANY DEMOCRATS.

MADISON SHOOTING.—William Turner, a farmer in the Southern end of Madison county, shot and mortally wounded his wife Wednesday and then turned the weapon on himself. Turner was acquitted of a murder charge in April.

ASPARIGUS.—2½ pounds Silver Crescent Asparagus, 25 cents.

C. P. COOK & CO.

JUDGE FRENCH GIVES BOND.—Judge B. F. French, of Winchester, went to Cynthiana, Tuesday, and gave bond in the sum of $1,000 with former Senator Alex. Hargis, of Winchester, as surety. French was indicted last week for subornation of perjury.

DRESS GOODS.—We still have nice dress goods to offer at cost.

2t FREEMAN & FREEMAN.

NEW LOCATIONS.—Silas Ritchie, of Stony Point, has leased the store room adjoining the Dow-Hayden Grocery Co., and will open a grocery, and J. Harrison Davis will remove his stock of groceries to the adjoining room lately vacated by J. R. Adair.

NOTICE.—Dr. Bowen, the optician, will be at A. J. Winters & Co.'s, Thursday, March 10. Examination free.

SEE OUR NEW PAPER.—The largest and prettiest line of wall paper ever brought to Paris, or to Central Kentucky, can be found at J. T. Hinton's. Make your selections now and his hangers will put it on when you are ready for them.

ALLOWED BAIL.—The examining trial of Llewellyn Sharp, Jr., at Lexington, accused of the murder of Griggs Hopper and Ed. Watts, near Athens, Saturday night, was again postponed until March 12. The accused was allowed $1,000 bail in each case, his father, Llewellyn Sharp, Sr., being his surety.

SHOES.—Just in—a nobby line of shoes for Spring wear.

1t FREEMAN & FREEMAN.

A FINE CROP.—The city hands on Wednesday gathered the finest crop of mud from Main street that has been grown for years. The new scraper was used on some of our streets and gave perfect satisfaction. The harvest was so bountiful, though, that an additional force of hands was necessary.

AN INVALUABLE PAPER.—The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder, published at Lexington, Ky., is evidently going to fill a position in Kentucky journalism which no other paper has even ever tried to fill. It covers every department of both live stock and general farm interests—thoroughbred, trotting horse, saddle horse, cattle, sheep, general farm interests.

HEMP SEED.—Best Cultivated Kentucky River Bottom Hemp Seed for sale. Time of payment to suit purchaser. Will contract for the new growing hemp crop.

E. F. SPEARS & SONS.

OMITTED.—In receiving the report of meeting of the Library Trustees over the 'phone for our last issue from Secretary Dr. C. G. Daugherty, we failed to catch the names of Miss Lizzie Grimes and Mrs. Florence Lockhart Clay as members of the committee to buy books. The Doctor don't talk as plain over the 'phone as some persons we know, still he is an awful good doctor and nice fellow.

DON'T FAIL TO ATTEND Harry Simon's Special Sale of Muslin Underwear all this week.

HOTEL CLOSED.—The famous old Reese House, at Winchester, for nearly a century one of the leading hotels of the country, is closed for the first time in its history, the lease of Col. W. H. Boswell, the last proprietor, having expired. The owners of the property, Messrs. George Proctor and J. L. Brown, will probably tear down the old landmark and erect a modern business block, including a hotel, in its stead.

FOR RENT.—Lower flat with water. Private entrance. 1t Miss R. DOHRER.

JUROR KING ACQUITTED.—After being out 20 minutes, the jury in the case of ex-Sheriff Jasper King, at Cynthiana, juror in the Jett-White feud trial, who was accused of perjury, returned a verdict of not guilty. It was charged that King, prior to the trial, had expressed opinions in the case, and that when examined for the jury, he swore otherwise. His trial, for contempt of court, was continued till the May term.

Lively Business Expected Here Monday.

Monday, March 7th, is the regular Bourbon County Court Day, and, with the coming of Spring, it will be a good time to make seasonable purchases. No better place is possible than in Paris, and country people from far and near are invited to come in. Our merchants are receiving their Spring stocks and now is the time to select from them, before they have been picked over.

The stock sales are expected to be of renewed interest, and large numbers of animals will be on hand.

LEXINGTON STEAM LAUNDRY.—Try the Lexington Steam Laundry. Satisfaction guaranteed.

JAMES ARKLE, Agent.

Take Our Tip.

If you need hardware, stoves, ranges, steel ceilings or iron mantles, take our tip and go to see Lowry & Lalbott, opposite the Court House. These reliable and business young men are fast forging to the front, as demonstrated by the increase of their business. They are prepared to make estimates for any kind of tin work, roofing, &c., and are the agents for the American Field and Hog Fence, the best fence in the world. They also carry the largest and best stock of fishing tackle that can be found in Paris.

Save Your Discount.

Pay your Gas Bill promptly and thus save discount. Last day, March 10. Bring your bill with you.

PARIS GASLIGHT CO., Office, up-stairs over Postoffice.

Sues For Divorce.

Mrs. Pearl Brooks Cram, of this city, filed suit yesterday for divorce from Dr. Charles D. Cram, of Aberdeen, S. D. In her petition she prays only for judicial separation, but afterwards files an amended petition and asks for $5,000 alimony and custody of the children. She alleges that defendant has an estate amounting to $15,000, coming into possession of this property by the recent death of his father. Attachments were issued to Grant county, the home of his father.

Dr. Cram was refused a divorce from his wife in the South Dakota Court several months ago. He is now practicing his profession at Aberdeen, S. D.

Wall Paper.

Bear in mind that I can show you a finer line of Wall Paper than was ever brought to Paris and will sell it for small profit. No accumulation of old stock to make a big show.

CHAS. COOLEY, Paris, Ky.

Rather Amusing.

At the trial of Tom Wheeler for lunacy in Judge Smith's Court, Wednesday, Deputy Sheriff Neville Fisher was appointed by the Court to defend him, and well did he do it, for Wheeler was discharged. A warrant was then issued for Wheeler charging him with breach of the peace, he having knocked his wife in the head, and if he wasn't crazy they wanted to handle him on the latter charge. Deputy Sheriff Fisher arrested him and was then employed to defend him. Mr. Fisher urged his release saying it would be an outrage to fine a crazy man. However, Wheeler was fined $14. The court house gang seems to be having a nice time down there all by themselves.

Deed of Trust.

E. A. Liver, of Clintonville, on yesterday, made a deed of trust to W. F. Heathman for benefit of his creditors. The creditors mentioned in deed are: W. F. Heathman, $4,500; J. W. Liver, $1,500; Ed. Weathers, $175; Wm. Stillwell, $225; Shelton McDonald, $80; John Cunningham, $80. The property deeded over consists of 132 acres of land lying on the Iron Works turnpike. The deed continues in force until the said debts are satisfied. No bond was required of Mr. Heathman unless some one of the creditors desired it.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received one of the handsomest lines of Wall Paper ever brought to our city. Call and see for yourself. First-class hanger to put it on.

Geo. W. DAVIS.

HARRISON CIRCUIT COURT.—The Harrison county grand jury adjourned Wednesday afternoon after returning twenty-three indictments, George Bowlin, of Breathitt, was before the grand jury and admitted A. C. Addams' testimony to be true. The $10,000 slander suit against Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shipp, brought by Miss Nellie Patton, is set for to-day. This case is creating a great deal of interest, as some of the most prominent families in Harrison and Bourbon are involved.

Tobacco Cotton.—Best grade of tobacco cotton at 2½ and 3 cents per yard.

HARRY SIMON.

COUNTY TREASURER'S REPORT.—In this issue will be found a full and official itemized report of the Treasurer of Bourbon county. It begins on page 8 and is continued on page 4.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS WHILE IT LASTS.—Old James E. Pepper Whisky only 75 cents per bottle. Worth $1.25.

It FRANK SALOSHIN.

McCann's Murderer On Trial.

Mrs. Jessie McCann, of Kentucky, widow of the murdered horseman, James P. McCann, was the central figure Wednesday, at St. Louis, in the trial of Frederick Seymour Barrington, charged with the crime. She last saw McCann alive on the night of May 18, when he and Barrington went out ostensibly to meet some wealthy English friends of the latter, who were to lend him (Barrington) some money.

McCann, not appearing the next day, his wife asked Barrington about him. Barrington then told of his going away in a carriage with a woman after the alleged fight at Suburban Garden. Barrington, witness said, brought her an alleged message from her husband to the effect that he had got into trouble and was ashamed to return home.

When the bloody clothing found near the stone quarry was produced, Mrs. McCann identified them as having belonged to her husband. She wept aloud and, seizing the shoes, pressed them to her bosom, her grief causing the women spectators to keep in sympathy.

"Lord" Barrington never took his eyes from Mrs. McCann while she was on the stand, but maintained a very calm demeanor.
